

A Vei (wish of God) Upon a Shining Star!

There you are in the heaven's somewhere so far.

There you are in the breeze.

In the song of the birds, in the lilies and the trees.

I wish I wish, not for myself, but for others to be more full of joy.

I'd pray for myself, but I'm just a silly boy.

I know I have sowed some wicked seed.

Been a silly man with a pen like a garbage can, often in dire need.

I try to help others, call them sisters and brothers.

I have another petition I don't know how to write.

God you only know I work often late at night.

It is not to sell books, to be in fame with high looks.

No, it's all about what you did on Calvary.

I thank you, God, you came to prison and set me free.

AMEN

www.bible-heaven.com by:

Dale Lee Gordon