

I made horrible mistakes!!!

In the past and even recently I have found myself making some horrible mistakes even as a Christian. I have to confess to the Mighty God our one true Savior and King LORD Jesus Christ that I tried to do things alone. I have tried to live apart from God and it has not worked, and in my own folly I disobeyed God. One of the worst mistakes I made was letting a pastor take tens of thousands of dollars from me in credit and never repaid me. I took the money God gave me and cast my pearls to the swine. God I am sorry! In 2009 I have hardly told a soul this but I was scammed by a very evil man in Nigeria for well over $12,000.00. I feel like a fool! In anger I have blamed God for my own stupidity and even made excuses for the foolish things I have done. However it is my fault and I am the blame. I sinned against the Holy One the Creator of the Universe.

I have tried my all to dig myself out of this hole and I am finding that this hole is too deep for me to climb out of. I have done all I can do to recover from my mistakes, but there seems to be no hope. I have read countless emails and gone from one to the next continually getting scammed. There is nothing left and I don't know what to do. I have given my all to God in love and I know Jesus is still King and LORD of my life. In my dreams I battle Satan alone and every night it is war on another plain.

With all my heart, soul, mind and strength I want to serve my King Jesus but I don't know how to do it alone. I have a great testimony and though the first book was written by Robert Scott in, "Kill or be Killed," the story does not end there. The evil things I did so long ago stand as an example of how God forgives and changes hearts and heals past pains. The problem is my past haunts me and not only do I live with the pain of a crime where my friend Carole Ann was murdered in 1998, but I live with the pains of financial destruction. The money God gave me to start this ministry one wicked pastor saw that I would never spread the testimony God allowed me to live through.

While I believe in God for healing and trust God in all things, sometimes we need help from brothers and sisters in the LORD's service. I guess what I am asking is help. If ever there were a street corner in cyberspace then I am standing on it now holding out a banner of Jesus love. I am not railing God for my mistakes, but rather thanking God that I could experience poverty and loss as many others are hurting at the same time. It is the fault of my own I am in the low position I am in now. The world never did me wrong, I never lived up to God's law or to his values and therefore missed out on God's promises. I know the time is at hand of Christ return and so badly I want to be used for God. I plead with you Jesus Christ before the world that I was a fool. I did wickedly and I failed you and I am no longer worthy of being a child of the Most High God. I have been in life's prison literal, mentally, and now financially. I bow before You Jesus and you alone, make me one of your servants please come and save me Oh wicked man that I am. I have tried all the world's ways, and none of them work. So I bow before you LORD a broken and beat man because I went out on my own. Father forgive me for I know what I did and I confess I am a sinner with no hopes for heaven, only you Jesus my King. Come into my life and save me from my sins.

Your Humble Servant,

Dale Lee Gordon
