

Null and Void- Written to be used as a Song

Reveltion 9:11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

אבדון

'ābaddôn ab-ad-done' Intensively from: אבד

'ābad aw-bad' A primitive root; properly to wander away, that is lose oneself; by implication to perish (causatively, destroy): - break, destroy (-uction), + not escape, fail, lose, (cause to, make) perish, spend, X and surely, take, be undone, X utterly, be void of, have no way to flee. Abstractly a perishing; concretely Hades: - destruction.

In the paradise garden a long time ago.
Something happened though not everyone knows.
There was a snake with evil word.
"Ye shall not surely die," and then evil occurred.
But when the fulness of the time was come...
God sent forth his Son.
Made of a woman, made under the law.
Born in a manger, in the cold in the straw.
This is the KING, sold by our sins.
Jesus Christ coming back soon again.
As for that Devil he is pronounced null and void.
Many run with the Devil though soon be unemployed.
Though god of the world only for a time.
He will be punished forever for wicked crime.
Abbadon it means perishing to destroy.
As for me it's another name I like to avoid.
There is a cost we don't always understand.
(Hammer and nail sound)
Redemption was the original plan, nailed by hand.
And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness.
A picture many of us so often dismiss.
Even so must the Son of man be lifted up.
Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup.
Nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.
For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son.
That whosoever believeth in him should not perish,
But have everlasting life. God sent not his Son to condemn.
The world through him might be saved and your soul to win.
As for that Devil he is pronounced null and void.
Many run with the Devil though soon be unemployed.
Though god of the world only for a time.
He will be punished forever for wicked crime.
God gave us a choice to live or live in sin.
You can follow evil, or chose Christ and win.
Life is a lesson though many who hear are annoyed.
To fail in life you will be blotted out marked null and void.
