

what is love???

Love does not clock in and out.

Love does not come with a hammer's blow.

Love is not built as a castle.

Love is like a river that will always flow.

Love is not shown in gifts.

Sometimes love comes as a kiss from the lips.

Love comes in a cradle.

A higher love comes from the manger.

Love doesn't become rude or wear at your soul.

Love isn't bound and love doesn't fold.

Love is something we often neglect.

Love is easy to turn and forget.

Love can become a game where money is cost.

Yet true love last forever and will never be lost.

And if someday you look for love and have yet to give in.

Jesus crushed the devil in his life without sin.

Love is a game in which some will sit down and pay.

True love is not some wicked game with emotionless play.

If you find true love hold on so tight and true.

There is one love in heaven and that is Jesus who loves you.
