

"My Appology" March 2nd 2010

I had a bad day when it all came to grips the reality and sometimes cold harshness of life. I included a link about my folly but truly my folly was allowing Satan to gain victory in areas of my life. Sometimes simply rebuking the devil will not drive him out. Jesus said some kinds of devils go out by "prayer and fasting" I don't know if living on last Friday's Mission trip getting Top Ramon soups qualifies me for a fast but God is working in my life more and more every day. I came to realization last Sabbath, Saturday 27th, in church I can be the man I want to be and even in poverty's grips I can still be loving. I also realize I have to stand up and be a man too. I learned something from a woman who recently fled from the LORD. Women were given the position in life GOD chose. Doug Batchlor gave a sermon and he described an order to life. Creation took place based on an order of intelligence. God created in an exact order according to intelligence. I treat everyone as well as possible some better than others depending on how I feel. I learned the answer to my question, "What if Eve came first?" I got the answer after we were all seriously manipulated by one woman who brought many of us down. God created everything in order of intelligence and I don't think Doug Batchlor embellished the end of the story and I won't either and I know why. Doug is an intelligent man, I'm dumber than a box of rocks, but I will lean on wisdom this time too, and say this GOD knew what He was doing!

Last night I threw some idols in the trash and I asked GOD to take away certain feelings away from me. I learned from our "Life Support" group that if I ever want those feelings back, GOD can give them back. The study was on "sexual sins" and thank God though I sinned in certain areas God left me unattractive enough to keep me from sinning even more. I look at some married folks and spouses can be either their crown of life or their crown of death. I write a lot about love and I just threw my lies in the trash last night. My friend asked me what are you throwing away, "idols I said."

I lied in church the other day and I fell right in the middle of church after my presentation. What I fell from was what I mentioned in the presentation and GOD made an example of me. One friend said, "you know you can't do what you do all alone?" I responded, "no we can only do it through Jesus." I commented about falling without Jesus in my presentation and sure as ever I fell to the floor right after the presentation was over. I missed communion at church and I am glad I did because that would have been my bitter end, because it would have been lies at the cup of Christ. God showed me my folly and Satan's blinding power and seeds of discouragement.

We can watch others get off the path and it is so easy to see, but our own guiding light grows dim when our glory has departed. I sinned but I regained my salvation in a letter of repentance to the world. Yesterday I sinned again as the devil tried to regain ground in my life. I wrote stuff on this site and it came across all wrong because I was angry and I repent now. This is Bible Heaven not Bible Hell and what I did was foolish and whoever I harmed I am sorry. GOD what I did was wrong and I ask not only your forgiveness once again, but a new guiding light to keep me on the path. Not all roads lead to heaven, but there are good people in this world, there are good pastors, there are good churches and though we don't always see eye to eye, I don't even see eye to eye with my church all the time, but whatever the outcome GOD is right. I am however doing the best I possibly can. GOD I ask you let me know how to heal and how to love and how to create Bible Heaven as a place to show your glory.
AMEN.
