

THOUGHTS AS WE ENTER A NEW YEAR; PROFOUND !

Steve Jobs, the CEO of Apple, died a billionaire. Here are some of his last thoughts and words:

"I reached the pinnacle of success in the business world. In others' eyes, my life is the epitome of success. However, aside from work, I have little joy. In the end, wealth is only a fact of life that I have become accustomed to. At this moment, I am on my sick bed, and recalling my life. I realize that all of the recognition and wealth in which I took so much pride, have become meaningless in the face of my impending death.

You can employ someone to drive a car for you, and to make money for you, but you cannot employ anyone to bear illness for you. Material things, when lost, can be found, but the one thing, that can never be found when it is lost, is your health and eventually your life itself.

Whatever stage in life we are at currently, in time we all face that day when the curtain comes down.

Treasure love for your family, love for your spouse and love for your friends. Treat yourself well, and cherish others.

As we grow older, and hopefully wiser, we slowly realize that wearing a $3,000.00 or a $30.00 watch is not important.

The time is the same. Whether we carry a $300.00 or $30.00 wallet/handbag, the contents are the same. Whether we drink a bottle of $100 or $10 wine, the hangover is the same. Whether the house we live in is 300 or 3,000 sq. ft., the loneliness is the same. Whether you fly first class or economy, if the plane goes down, you go down with it.

You will come to realize that true inner happiness does not come from the material things of this world.

Therefore, treasure your buddies, old friends, brothers and sisters. Chat often, laugh, sing songs with them. Talk about north-south-east-west, or heaven & earth. That is true happiness."

Six Undeniable Facts of Life:

1. Don't educate your children to be rich. Educate them to be happy, so when they grow up they will know the value of things, and not just their price.
2. "Eat your food as your medicines, otherwise you have to eat medicines as your food."
3. The one who loves you will never leave you for another, because, even if there are 100 reasons to give up, he, or she, will find that one reason to hold on.

4. There is a big difference between a human being and being human.

5. You are loved when you are born. You will be loved when you die. In between, only YOU are in charge of your life.

6. If you just want to walk fast, then walk alone. However, if you want to walk far, then walk together.

3. Exercise
4. Diet
5. Self Confidence
6. Friends

End of Email:

Email of mine sent to a friend in Church June 18, 2018. Scroll down for my version of life.

Over the years I have been terribly abused by all the churches I ever went to. I am an ancient Bible believing Christian. I have had my Bibles mocked, I just got kicked out of another Sunday church because I asked the pastor who he was trying to please the people in the pews or Jehovah God Almighty. The other church, an SDA church, they also had cheap grace and very bad attitudes. I was severely abused in that church as was my friend S. A pastor from a different church stole over $35,000.00 from me when I was severely ill. I think I am very polite and kind but I won't stand for any more abuse. I don't ask for much other than being treated with the same respect that everyone else gets. Today S and I really enjoyed the message and the pastor that gave the sermon. He taught that we need a relationship with Christ Jesus and he respected the message of hope and love. S and I both appreciated the congregation speaking to us. I did have a bad experience with the JW Kingdom Hall in prison. One of the brothers treated me horrible when we were outside of the service. This was years ago but I never did return and just before today I had given up completely on organized religion. Your church made me feel at home. I consider myself a Bible scholar who failed in not reading the Bible more, but deep depression, poor mental health, pinched nerves in both hands and glaucoma which God healed me of both though sadly I still disrespected God by not reading the Bible at least two hours a day every day. I failed God in many ways. I wish I would have read the Bible more. Sadly, I have only read the Bible cover to cover perhaps 10 times in the King James. I needed more time in prison to read the Bible more but God had mercy on a sinner. I only read the Bible 2-4 hours a day almost daily the entire eight years seven months of prison. Portions of the Bible I have only read a thousand times and some books as few as 40-50 times and I admit I did not read the 1560 Geneva Bible's Apocrypha, nor Josephus, nor Foxes Book of Martyrs, nor Tale of Two Cities. I admit I spent years after prison with my life in ruins. Finally, after nearly two decades in and out of sanity I have been able to study again with a sound mind. I only have five books on Amazon.com and created as few as around 20 websites which sadly some are still under construction. I failed God with my time, my money, and in sins. Even now I have probably only read the Bible an hour today. I should have done better. Also, I failed to read books on ancient Hebrew and I admit my Greek vocabulary is limited. I don't even know the Hebrew alphabet. My Hebrew is not the worst because I used to read the back of my Strong's Exhaustive Concordance in prison but still I fail there too. Sometimes I feel like crying because I have failed God in such a bad way. At one time I had even fallen into the evil sin of pornography. Other sins included taking responsibility for the money an evil pastor stole and attempting to pay it back. I only take care of a few Christian orphans though I failed to do more because money was short. I am handicapped because of severe mental illness and receive a small pension that only allows me to run a failed small ministry of websites. I am a total loser. Sadly, I did fornicate but that was 20 years ago and have not had sexual relations for going on 21 years and the same time period applies to alcohol. I don't have tattoos, never touched an illegal drug, never used a tobacco product, yet I used to design role playing games and once did a very wicked and evil crime 20 years ago. It breaks my heart my mind got so twisted. I just wish I would have done better, even now I feel I need to beat myself back into submission. I wasted time with bad "friends" that robbed my relation with Christ, stole money, and sadly got me to sin in ways like going through the garbage in a movie theatre to get popcorn boxes and get free popcorn refills without paying for it. Other times I sinned with a friend by filling a cup with Coke instead of tea. All I did was fail God, and I can't even remember if I cut the wrong wire in the Marines as a mechanic which I don't know what happened. I think insanity first entered my life as I watched bad evil movies as a teen. The mental conditions grew worse into full insanity as two people cast spells on me in jail back in 1998. I caused all the harm in my life. Yes, I had bad friends but I claim full responsibility myself. I love the D.A.'s and judge and others that sent me to prison for a fifth of my life. They blessed me with time to get right with God; and God rather than sending me to hell for eternity spared me with such a short prison sentence. I told them I loved them for the blessing they gave me in letters cards and in some books, I sent to the police. I work hard to prove to God I am sorry, I understand there is forgiveness but I am too wicked. I used time for myself and money for food, though most of my food comes from food banks: I look to the earth beat my breast and say, "God forgive me a wicked sinner." I have hurt others not physically but by my actions and poor ways. God forgive a wicked sinner that hurt God and fellow man. I don't know what to do to ever be forgiven. Also, I have not read every Hebrew and Aramaic word in the back of the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance. I am an absolute failure to God and I deserve the lowest abyss of hell. Only Christ can save me if He so chooses. Amen
